Lyndonville

Mrs. W. L. Wasson President of of Vermont Federation Spoke to Union Club.

The regular meeting of the Lyndon Union club was held last Thursday evening in the Cable Hall with a good attendance of the members and several guests. A pleasant feature of the evening was the presence of Mrs. W. L. Wasson of Waterbury, the president of the State Federation, who spoke briefly on the valuable work done by the normal training fund. The program was in charge of the Music Circle and was devoted to the works of E.
A. McDowell. Printed programs were distributed, announcing a Macdowell musicale. Mrs. J. W. Titcomb spoke in an interesting manner on the subject of Macdowell's life and works. Selections from his works were given by Mrs. J. J.
Hutchinson in vocal solos, and by Miss Irene Stinson, Miss Alice Campbell and Miss Mariel Stockwell, in piano solos and duets. Excellent performances were given well calculated to illustrate the difficulty, the variety, and the haunting charm of this greatest of American composers' works. Mrs. Wasson held an informal reception at the completion of the program and the social committee served punch and wafers.

home grounds. The game was closely contested and the visitors put up a good fight, but the institute boys played well and won by a score of 3 to 2. A big crowd witnessed the game and assisted by vociferous cheering. The institute players were as follows: Catcher, Dale Simpson; pitcher, Bernard Cleary; first base, Aubrey Grey; second base, Albert LaFrance; short stop, Harry Clark; third base, Howard Spaulding; center field, Edward Lavelly;
